Policy Content

Flight One School of Aviation has put in place the following procedure for reviewing decisions related to the re-crediting of a FEE HELP balance for students who have withdrawn after the census date or have failed to complete a unit of study because of special circumstances. These procedures ensure that Flight One School of Aviation complies with the fairness requirements in relation to review procedures for FEE HELP.

Incurring a FEE HELP debt

Students who are, or would be, eligible for FEE HELP assistance and have requested FEE HELP who withdraw from a unit on or before the census date will not incur a FEE HELP debt for the tuition fees for that unit. Students who have requested FEE-HELP assistance who remain enrolled after the published census date will incur a FEE-HELP debt. A Student who withdraws from a Unit after the published census date for that Unit will incur a FEE-HELP debt for that Unit.

Re-crediting a FEE HELP balance

Students who withdraw from a Unit after the published census date, or fail to complete a Unit, may apply to have their FEE-HELP balance re-credited with respect to the Unit if they believe special circumstances apply in accordance with the following procedures.

Special Circumstances

If a student withdraws from a Unit after the published census date for that Unit, or has been unable to successfully complete a Unit and believes this was due to special circumstances, the student may apply to have their FEE-HELP balance re-credited for the affected unit/s.

Students may apply to the secretary for the student's FEE-HELP balance to be re-credited for the following:

- The provider, or a person acting on the providers behalf engaged in unacceptable conduct in relation to student's application for the VET Student Loan
- The provider has failed to comply with the Act or an instrument under the Act and failure has adversely affected the student

The Secretary may re-credit a student's Fee-HELP balance in relation to special circumstances if a course provider:

- Is unable to act or is being wound up or has been dissolved
- Has failed to act and the Secretary is satisfied that the failure is unreasonable.

Flight One School of Aviation will re-credit the Student's FEE-HELP balance if it is satisfied that they meet any of the special circumstances.

STUDENT REVIEW POLICY AND PROCEDURE (FOR RE-CREDITING FEE HELP BALANCE)

Special Circumstances apply where:

- the Student's withdrawal or failure to complete are beyond their control, and
- these circumstances did not make their full impact on the student until on, or after the census date; and
- these circumstances were such that it was impractical for the student to complete the requirements for the Unit.

For circumstances to be beyond a Student's control, the situation should be that which a reasonable person would consider is not due to the Student's action or inaction, either direct or indirect, and for which the Student is not responsible. The situation must be unusual, uncommon or abnormal to be considered special circumstances.

Special circumstances do not include:

- lack of knowledge or understanding of requirements for FEE-HELP assistance; or
- Student's incapacity to repay a FEE-HELP debt (repayments are income contingent and the Student can apply to the Australian Taxation Office for a deferral of a compulsory repayment in certain circumstances).

Procedure

Each application for re-credit of a student's FEE-HELP balance will be considered on its merits together with all supporting documentation substantiating the special circumstances claim.

- a. A Student must apply in writing on the Withdrawal Form, to the General Manager within 12 months after the census date of the course or the part of the course, concerned or within that period as extended by the provider. Flight One School of Aviation has the discretion to waive this requirement if it is satisfied that it was not possible for the application to be made within the 12-month period. Relevant supporting documentation will be required to substantiate the claim.
- b. The application for re-crediting must be made within 5 years after the census day for the course or the part of the course, concerned or within that period as extended by the secretary. A FEE-HELP balance must include details of the:
 - Unit(s) for which a Student is seeking to have a FEE-HELP balance re-credited and
 - Special Circumstances as referred to above, including supporting documentation.
- c. Flight One School of Aviation will consider each application within 15 working days of receipt of the application. It will consider each request to re-credit a FEE-HELP balance in accordance with the requirements of Schedule 1A of the Act. Applicants will be notified in writing of the decision within 15 working days of reaching a decision.
